Argentine peso closes 11 pct weaker, sharpest fall since 2002 <ARS=RASL>
23-Jan-2014 20:09

BUENOS AIRES, Jan 23 (Reuters) - The Argentine peso closed 11 pct weaker on Thursday, the currency's steepest daily decline since the country's 2002 financial crisis.
The peso <ARS=RASL> closed at 8.0 to the U.S. dollar. The slide followed a 3 percent fall on Wednesday.
